

CALA's Excellence in Service Awards

Call for Nominations
Deadline: February 19, 2010

CALA members are continually setting standards of excellence, demonstrating superior achievements, and delivering outstanding care to residents in Assisted Living communities. To recognize outstanding service and encourage continued dedication and commitment in the field of Assisted Living, CALA will recognize award recipients at each of the 2010 conferences.

Members are encouraged to submit nominations for those who fit the criteria below:

Outstanding Caregiver

an exceptional caregiver that has provided outstanding care and demonstrated an excellent commitment to those entrusted to their care

Outstanding Team Member

an exceptional team member (non-caregiver, non-salaried employee) that has provided outstanding service and demonstrated a strong commitment to the residents and community

Outstanding Executive Director

an exceptional Executive Director whose dedicated leadership and outstanding service demonstrate an enduring commitment to the residents and community

Award Highlights

- * Submissions will be reviewed by a selection committee.
- * Honorees will be announced and recognized at CALA's 2010 Conferences.
- * Honorees will be featured in the CALA Bulletin.
- * A press release and picture will be provided to each award winner's Assisted Living community.
